This is a perfect family bike route on one of the most beautiful (and safest!) bike paths in France. Your scenic route takes you from Bordeaux to the Atlantic Coast. Along the way, scenery varies from pine tree forests past quaint villages to sandy ocean dunes on the peninsula of Cap Ferret.

After visiting the UNESCO Heritage city of Bordeaux, you'll take a boat along the Arcachon Basin and stroll around the city of Arcachon, with its bustling town square. The protected beach on the edge of Arcachon Basin is particularly suited for swimming, so don't forget your swim suit! Enjoy the Dune du Pyla, the tallest sand dune in Europe. Later, visit small seaside fishing villages, many painted in traditional bright colors. Don't miss the chance to taste some fresh oysters while relaxing at an outdoor café.

Day 1

You might want to enter the old city section by riding along the quays of the Garonne. The Bordeaux quayside is one of the most magnificent waterfronts in the world. Discover the banks of the Garonne River and check out the buildings made with white chiseled stone.

At the end of the ride, Cap-Ferret gives you amazing views of the Great Dune of Pyla. This giant dune is sometimes called "The Sahara of France" because of its four different sand formations.
