Itinerary

Day 1

Arles-Saintes Maries de la Mer

Bike
40km

Stroll into the streets of Arles and visit its arena and amphitheater. Leave the city using a cycle path to proceed into Camargue where you will enjoy a dry and wild nature. Meet white wild horses and bulls in the countryside!
You finish the day in "Les Saintes Maries de la Mer", a beautiful and typical village from the region. Have a walk in the marina and enjoy the beautiful lights of the sunset.

Day 2

Bird park loop

Bike
18km

The smallest loop will lead you towards the Camargue. You will discover "les Mas" (typical houses) but also "les manades" (you can do horseriding in les manades). You can finish your day at the ornithological parc called le Pont du Gau. It is a must see. You can discover a lot of gorgeous pink flamingos and other species of birds inside this parc.

Vaccares pond loop

Bike
64km

If you cycle the biggest loop, you will discover Vaccares pond, a place full of animals and nature. You will cycle all around the pond and also cycle along the seashore.

Day 3

Saintes Maries de la Mer-Aigues Mortes

Bike
35km

You follow the road along the vineyards and reach today Aigues Mortes, a fortified town. You can enjoy a walk inside the city and visit its salt marshes. Do not miss the visit by small train to discover the process of collecting salt. You will enjoy the purple waters full of salt but also the beautiful view over Aigues Mortes ramparts. You have the opportunity to continue riding to the sea by reaching Le-Grau-du-Roi at the end of your step.

Day 4

Aigues Mortes-Arles

Bike
55km

You leave the small city of Aigues Mortes and its salt marshes and cycle on the ViaRhôna. You ride along the "Petit Rhône" and proceed into Camargue. One last time, you can observe the wild animals of the area. The natural landscapes will disappear little by little as you reach the beautiful city of Arles. It is time to say goodbye to the region... unless you decide to extend your stay!
