Itinerary

This two-days tour around Bayeux lets you discover the turbulent history of Normandy.

You'll pedal on quiet, country roads towards Omaha Beach, where history comes alive. Reflect in the American Cemetery in Colleville-sur-Mer, and the Overlord Museum.

The second day's route takes you to the British sector and the artificial port of Arromanches.

You'll have time to visit Bayeux, known for the Bayeux tapestry, the longest embroidered object in the world.

Day 1

Day-tour to Omaha Beach

Bike
50km

The day's route begins from Bayeux, going to the Overlord Museum and the American Cemetery. You'll bike on quiet roads through traditional villages with half-timbered houses. The homes are surrounded by forests and cattle grazing on pasture.

Take time to pay respect to the almost 10,000 American soldiers who sacrificed their lives for freedom. The bike route then continues along the coast to the picturesque small fishing port of Port-en-Bessin. After strolling around the harbor, follow the path back to Bayeux.

Day 2

Day-trip to the artificial harbour of Arromanches

Bike
29km

Altitude
±70m

Bike through the Normandy countryside until you reach the port of Arromanches. You'll hear stories and be filled with emotion as you visit the D-Day museum and watch a movie showing the 100 days of the landing. The bike path back to Bayeux takes you past bomb craters, gun posts and bunkers. Arriving in Bayeux, take time to visit the Bayeux Tapestry. The tapestry stretches 291 feet by 20 inches and depicts the Norman invasion of England in the 11th century.
