Itinerary

This is a perfect family bike route on one of the most beautiful (and safest!) bike paths in France. Your scenic route takes you from Bordeaux to the...
Atlantic Coast. Along the way, scenery varies from pine tree forests past quaint villages to sandy ocean dunes on the peninsula of Cap Ferret.

After visiting the UNESCO Heritage city of Bordeaux, you’ll take a boat along the Arcachon Basin and stroll around the city of Arcachon, with its bustling town square. The protected beach on the edge of Arcachon Basin is particularly suited for swimming, so don’t forget your swim suit! Enjoy the Dune du Pyla, the tallest sand dune in Europe. Later, visit small seaside fishing villages, many painted in traditional bright colors. Don’t miss the chance to taste some fresh oysters while relaxing at an outdoor café.

Day 1

Bordeaux

You might want to enter the old city section by riding along the quays of the Garonne. The Bordeaux quayside is one of the most magnificent waterfronts in the world. Bordeaux was awarded UNESCO World Heritage status in 2007 because of the beautiful 18th century facades and outstanding buildings. Discover the banks of the Garonne River and check out the buildings made with white chiseled stone.

Bordeaux-Saint-Médard

Leave the city on the Bordeaux-Lacanau biking path which is flat and well-paved. Ride past bubbling streams, and idyllic natural beauty. End the day with a refreshing swim in the hotel pool.

Day 2

Saint-Médard - Lacanau

Today is a perfect bike riding day as you follow the cycling path to the Atlantic Ocean. Along the way you’ll pedal through a cool, pine forests until you reach Lacanau. This popular seaside resort offers long, sandy beaches plus a chance to go surfing!

Day 3

Lacanau-Arcachon

Ride along the coastline on the designated bicycle path. Here’s your chance for a unique ride as you get up close to the tallest sand dune in France, the Dune of Pyla. At the end of the ride, Cap-Ferret gives you amazing views of the Great Dune of Pyla. This giant dune is sometimes called “The Sahara of France” because of its four different sand formations. There’s time to sun bathe or swim while experiencing the fresh salt air. Take the boat to Arcachon and enjoy the view of the coastline from a different perspective.

Boat trip from Cap Ferret to Arcachon. Approximately 1 hour, included in tour

Day 4

To the Great Dune of Pilat and the ocean

On this route, you’ll ride along the coastline and dunes towards the Dune of Pilat. Take time to sunbath on the beach or enjoy a dip in the ocean water.

Suggested day trip : oyster-farming villages and the Leyre delta

Learn about oyster farming from dedicated oyster farmers in Gujan Mestras and sample the freshest oysters you’ll ever taste! The Leyre Delta is where fresh waters of the river and the salty waters of the ocean meet. You can go bird watching or rent a canoe or kayak and explore the area or water.

Oyster museum (Maison de l’huître) Approximately 1 hour, included in tour. The museum visit is partly guided.

Suggested day trip : Lac

Bike towards the dune of Pyla and leave the beautiful city of Arcachon behind. Cross the Suggested day trip: Lac de Cazaux

Bike towards the dune of Pyla and leave the beautiful city of Arcachon behind. Cross the beautiful pine forest on a small slightly hilly country road and reach the impressive lake of Cazaux. The bike tour back to Arcachon is on a very flat bike path.
