Itinerary

This week-long cycling trip will introduce you to the must-sees of Alsace: its charming towns, its hillside vineyards, its flowered half-timbered houses, its wine villages, its fortified castles, its Romanesque churches... From the covered bridges of Strasbourg to the romantic canals of Colmar, explore one of the most beautiful cycle routes in France. Your route will be punctuated by charming picturesque villages: Rosheim, Barr, Bergheim, Riquewihr, Kaysersberg... Take a day-trip to Haut-Koenigsbourg castle perched on its rocky outcrop from where you can admire breathtaking views over the valley. Discovering Alsace also means tasting its many local food specialties with a glass of wine of course!

A beautiful week by bike in the heart of Alsace for unforgettable holidays!

Day 1

Strasbourg

You start your cycling holidays in the capital of the Alsace region: Strasbourg. This city has a rich cultural heritage, so do not miss its architectural treasures including the majestic Notre Dame cathedral, the covered bridges and the Palais Rohan. Then take the time to stroll in the picturesque district of "Petite France" (Little France) with the beautiful half-timbered houses, where once fishermen and tanners lived.

Day 2

Strasbourg-Obernai

Bike
39km

Altitude
±145m

+ optional loop-tour 30km

You'll leave the cobblestone streets of Strasbourg's old city center to follow south of the city the channel "Canal de la Bruche". The canal was built by Vauban to transport the sandstones of the Vosges to Strasbourg for the construction of the city's fortifications. You ride on a bike path along the shady banks and the old locks. This scenic route will take you to charming Alsatian villages with their colorful and blooming facades. Then reach to the famous Alsace Wine Route cycle path in Molsheim, a very pretty wine town, birthplace of the Bugatti automobile brand. You continue your ride on the hillside through the Alsatian vineyards and wine villages to reach Obernai and its belfry.

For the more courageous ones, you can add to your stage a nice cycle loop north of Molsheim (+30km).

Day 3

Obernai - Sélestat area

Bike
~40km

Altitude
±230m

Choice between 2 itineraries

Leave Obernai behind and visit in Gertwiller the Gingerbread House and later the pretty village of Barr. Take small country roads that meander through vineyards, old railway lines and segments of the former Roman road. Near Blienschwiller 2 routes options lies before reaching Sélestat.

You can continue through the vineyards passing the charming villages of Blienschwiller, Dambach-la-Ville and Scherwiller, where you can see above you the ruins of the castle of Ortenbourg.

The other route is a little sportier. You leave the vineyards and discover the Vosges towards Val de Villé. Ride on wooded slopes and pass the villages Saint-Pierre-Bois and Thanvillé. From there, you take the former Salt Road, a beautiful cycle path through the forest to Sélestat.

Day 4

Day-trip to the Château du Haut-Koenigsbourg

Bike
43km

Altitude
±741m

Enjoy a rest day to visit the Château du Haut-Koenigsbourg, witness to the various rivalries that moved the Europe's history over the centuries. There are 2 choices :

- You leave your bikes for the day. A shuttle takes you from Sélestat to the castle and also stops at two animal parks on the way : the Eagle Park and the Monkey Mountain.

- The more athletic ones can cycle up to the castle located 757m high, taking a beautiful road through the forests of the Vosges mountains.

Day 5

Sélestat area - Colmar

Bike
~37km

Altitude
±350m

You leave the Sélestat area overlooked by the famous 12th-century-old castle of Haut-Koenigsbourg, then ride into the fortified village of Bergheim, one of the few Alsatian villages which has preserved almost all of its medieval fortifications. Then you leave the Alsace Wine Route cycle path and ride up the hill to Ribeauvillé and its picturesque streets, Riquewihr, the "Pearl of the Alsatian vineyards," and Hunawihr, both referred to as one of the most beautiful villages in France. Do not miss the detour to Kaysersberg, one of the most charming towns in Alsace. Finally, you ride quietly down through the vineyards and apple orchards to reach the beautiful city of Colmar, capital of Alsace wines.

Day 6

Day-trip to Eguisheim

Bike
35km

Altitude
±165m

You leave Colmar and reach the shady banks of the Thur river. Then keep biking in the Alsatian countryside until Eguisheim, ranked among the most beautiful French villages and many times awarded for its flowers. Admire its beautiful 16th century-old houses with their bright colors and stroll through its cobbled streets. Continue through vineyards to the pretty village of Turckheim where a night watchman continues every night to make his rounds from May to October. You can pause in Ammerschwihr to enjoy a glass of Kaefferkopf, before returning to Colmar.

Day 7

Colmar

Enjoy a last stroll in Colmar. Stroll in the district of "Little Venice" and admire the "house of heads" and the "Pfister house".
