This 4-day cycling tour, between land and sea, takes you to discover some of the jewels of northern Brittany.

Departing from Rennes, you ride along the Ille-et-Rance canal on old towpaths now rehabilitated as greenways, ideal for bike rides. You continue to the sea, passing through the charming city of Dinan, medieval villages and small cities of character, before reaching the coast in Dinard. From there, a boat crossing (included) takes you to the famous town of Saint-Malo. Do not miss its pedestrian streets, corsair houses, ramparts and sailing boats moored in the port!

Your trip doesn't end there! After a night in Saint-Malo, you set off towards the magnificent Emerald Coast and cycle through the green countryside before arriving in Cancale where you can admire the port and taste delicious oysters. You then return to Saint-Malo along the coast this time, and stop for a swim in one of the pretty coves!

Practical information

To get to departure point:

By plane: flight to Rennes.

By train: TGV (fast trains) from Paris Montparnasse. The duration of the trip is about 2h20. To plan your trip, www.raileurope.com.

Parking

If you drive to Rennes, you can park your car in a secured car park located in the city center. The weekly rate is about €25. All details will be given in your travel documents.

To get back to starting point:

Regional trains take you back to your starting point if you wish. They are accessible without booking in advance and bicycles are free (if you come with your own bike). You have to buy your ticket on spot (approximative duration: 1h, full rate 9€/adult). There are several trains per day. You will find the timetable in your travel documents.

You can also depart directly in TGV from Saint-Malo.

If you chose the luggage transport, you will be able to pick up your luggage after 5pm at the pick up location.

Meeting time:

You pick up your bikes in the morning between 9.30am and 12.30pm at a meeting time set together during booking. We recommend you to arrive around 10am to enjoy your day fully without rushing.

Bikes pick up point and luggage drop off point will be given in your travel documents.
