Itinerary

This short bike tour of Burgundy area has you riding almost entirely on designated bike paths. The route takes you through Tournus, Mâcon, the Abbey in Cluny and Chalon. It's an easy ride since the path is on a converted railroad track, leading by beautiful scenery. You even have a chance to travel through Europe's longest bike-only tunnel!

This self-guided bike tour is the perfect way to discover the Burgundy wines in the Cote Chalonnaise area. It also gives the opportunity to visit castles and discover the religious heritage of Cluny and Taize.

Day 1

Chalon - Tournus

Bike
33km

You bike the Saône river banks out of Chalon and further the quiet, country roads through the villages. Take time to visit the historic town of Tournus, with its wealth of old buildings. It is one of the oldest monastic centers in Burgundy, featuring the remarkably preserved Abbey of Saint-Philibert. The Hotel-Dieu is a museum inside a former hospital with an apothecary.

Day 2

Tournus - Mâcon

Bike
24/29/34km

Cycle path

Today, you have two possibilities to be entertained:

- full bike option: Your bike path goes along the banks of the Saone River. Follow the scenic path which is part of an ancient towpath. The entire ride is tranquil as you pass quaint villages and charming vistas on your way to Mâcon. As you enter Mâcon, admire the Saint-Laurent bridge. Take time to catch a glimpse at the Saint-Pierre church and the medieval Wood House. You can also enter the Ursulines Museum which presents the local history and an art collection.

- canoe + bike option: You need to be at least 5 years old and be able to swim. You begin your day by a canoe ride (you have two distance choices). The Saône river is your guide, relax and enjoy the journey. You can even take a swim! After the canoe, our partner will meet you and will give you back your bikes. You will then continue your ride by bike on the cycle path up to Mâcon.

Day 3

Mâcon - Cluny

Bike
30km

Bike lane

You bike out of Mâcon and find quickly again the dedicated bike path through well-maintained vineyards. If you want a good warm-up, ride to the birthplace of the famous French writer, poet and politician, Lamartine. Otherwise, keep on the bike path to Berzé-la-Ville. Enter the Chapelle des Moines to see its magnificent mural paintings from the Middle Ages. At the foothill of the majestic fortress of Berze-le-Chatel, you ride 1.6km through the longest bike-only tunnel in Europe. This tunnel is closed in the winter to protect a colony of bats! The bike path takes you finally to Cluny. End your day by discovering the history of the Abbey of Cluny, the largest monastic order of the medieval western world.

Day 4

Cluny - Chalon

Bike
52km

Bike lane

The bike tour goes further on the quiet bike lane and then leads to the Castle of Comatin, known for its 17th Century unique murals. Stroll across the massive drawbridge and view the gardens and water features. You'll continue riding on the dedicated bike path through cool forests, vast vineyards and pastoral fields. Be sure to stop in the villages of Saint-Georges-Le-National, Buxy and Givry. Cooperative wineries welcome visitors to visit and sample a variety of their wines. As you arrive in Chalon, end the day with a stroll through the lively little streets around the church of Saint-Vincent.
