Itinerary

© Le Vélo Voyageur

You will cycle mostly along the canal of Burgundy for this bike trip in a region, full of surprises! Discover the must-see sites of the area such as the abbey of Fontenay, the castle of Commarin or the battle site of Alesia between the Gauls and Romans. On your own pace, explore the traditional hamlets of Semur-en-Auxois, Châteauneuf or Flavigny-sur-Ozerain and ride through the locks of the canal enjoying a view over the countryside.

These biking holidays start in Montbard, the city of Buffon and end in Dijon, the city of a hundred churches. You will have all the time to enjoy the heritage and the art of life of the region with its wines and local specialities!

Day 1

Arrival in Montbard

Welcome in the city of Buffon, a famous French naturalist! Montbard is a lively cultural and historical city you can explore at your own pace. You meet the canal of Burgundy : your travel companion for this adventure!

Day 2

Montbard - Semur-en-Auxois

Bike
28km

Bicycle path

Get on your bike to ride along the canal of Burgundy with a view over the countryside! Today, you will discover some of the most impressive tourist sites. To learn more about the history of the region, you can visit the Forge of Buffon, an industrial work of art. For history buffs, do not miss the Abbey of Fontenay, the oldest Cistercian abbey preserved in the world and listed in the UNESCO world heritage. You leave the canal in Pouillenay to reach the medieval city of Semur-en-Auxois.

Day 3

Loop tour Semur-en-Auxois

Bike
46km

Countryside roads

After strolling into the lively streets of Semur, you board for a journey through time and space in Alesia region, which is famous for being the battle site between the Gauls and Romans. The park-museum and the statue of Vercingetorix will certainly remind you the comic books with Astérix and Obélix. The adventure goes on in the hamlet of Flavigny-sur-Ozerain and its famous anis factory, a perfect place for food-lovers! Then, you reach back the canal and its quiet banks before getting back to Semur-en-Auxois.

Day 4

Semur-en-Auxois - Pouilly-en-Auxois

Bike
42km

Bicycle path

Say goodbye to the historical capital of Auxois region and ride through small countryside roads of Burgundy. In Pont-et-Massène, swim into the lake to cool down before cycling along the Armançon river. The canal of Burgundy is here. You arrive in Pouilly-en-Auxois, a perfect nautical place to discover and enjoy the specialities of the area.

Day 5

Pouilly-en-Auxois - Vandenesse-en-Auxois

Bike
23km

Countryside roads

For this short step, you will enjoy plenty of tourist and cultural sites you can discover at your own pace. In Commarin, you will admire the architecture of the 14th century castle with all pieces of preserved traditional furniture. In Châteauneuf, listed as most beautiful village of France, stroll into the medieval streets before exploring the castle and its exhibitions. Unless you prefer to relax onto the beach of the lake of Panthier and taste a delicious wine of the region?

Day 6

Vandenesse-en-Auxois - Dijon

Bike
52km

Bicycle path

It is time to say goodbye to Auxois region and hello to the valley of Ouche! You ride along the peaceful canal of Burgundy and discover typical hamlets. Take the time to taste the regional products and make a stop around one of the lively lock. After passing the lake of Kir, where you can swim or look at the sailing boats, you arrive in Dijon. Enjoy the typical art of living and do not miss the visit of the palace of the Dukes of Burgundy.

Day 7

Dijon

Described as the "city with the hundred bell towers" by François 1er, Dijon was the capital of the powerful Dukes of Burgundy. The city has inherited architectural gems such as the Palace of the Dukes of Burgundy, Notre Dame church with its famous carved owl or the mansions of the old city center. Dijon is also well-known for its food specialties such as gingerbread, mustard, blackcurrant liquor or nonette (pastry).
