This 4-day cycle tour starting in Bordeaux takes you across the vineyards and along the Canal de Garonne till Agen. You cycle out of Bordeaux on a secure cycle route along the river and then ride on a greenway surrounded by vineyards. You pass by charming « bastides » built in the 17th century, such as Créon or Sauveterre-de-Guyenne. At the end of the cycle path, you ride on low traffic country roads to find again the Garonne at La Réole, a nice medieval town on the river banks. You ride the next part of the itinerary along the Canal de Garonne under the shade of plane trees. A stopover at Le Mas d'Agenais, a typical village of Garonne countryside proud of its collegial church, before your last stage to Agen where you enter majestically on the canal bridge.

Day 1

Bordeaux - Frontenac

Bike
46km

You leave Bordeaux along the Garonne river on a nice cycle path. Nature is gradually gaining ground over the city. You divert from the river from Latresne to ride on a former railway converted into a cycle path. The old train stations are welcoming you in each village and often provide services for cyclists such as food, coffee and information. We strongly recommend to go out of the cycle path to see the bastide of Créon and the remains of the abbey of La Sauve.

Day 2

Frontenac - La Réole

Bike
30km

You continue cycling on the greenway until you reach the bastide of Sauveterre-de-Guyenne. We advise you to enter in the church there to admire the wall paintings. After Sauveterre, the itinerary goes through the vineyards and is a bit more hilly. You ride a few kilometers on a hilly road before reaching the medieval town of La Réole on the Garonne river.

Jour 3

La Réole - Le Mas d'Agenais

Bike
34km

Today, you ride smoothly along the dikes and reach soon after the Canal de Garonne which will lead you till the end of your cycle tour. A cycle path is running along the canal. You can make a detour to the village of Couthures-sur-Garonne, where you can learn everything about the life on and in the river before getting to the charming village of Mas d'Agenais and its outstanding collegial church.

Day 4

Le Mas d'Agenais – Agen

Bike
49km

Start the day by biking along the path next to the canal. The route is dotted with quaint villages, containing locks where you can watch boaters navigate each lock. Just a stone's throw from the canal, admire the bastide of Damazan with its colorful facades or the bastide of Serignac-sur-Garonne with its bell tower made of slate. Towards the end of the route, the bike path crosses the magnificent canal bridge over the Garonne River on the outskirts of Agen. You'll soon be very close to the city center where you can absorb the sights, sounds and smells of southwest France's way of life.
