Itinerary

Discover the Loire Valley from Angers to Nantes. Your itinerary starts in the Anjou's heart biking amidst the vineyards. Further, you ride along the Loire enjoying the beauty of the river with its traditional boats named "toues". You'll cross the cutest villages nested on the hill tops, Montjean-sur-Loire et Saint-Florent-le-Viel which offer a spectacular view on the valley from its magnificent abbey. Your route is either on cycling paths or small countryroads through bocage, vineyards and farmland.

You reach the beautiful city of Nantes and its Ducs de Bretagne's castle, its cathedral and its famous "machines de l'Ile". Enjoy this vibrant classified "Art and History" City. From Nantes, different trips are possible either to the North along the Erdre river or to the South along the Sèvre Nantaise. A very varied trip in the heart of the Loire valley.

Day 1

Angers - Montjean-sur-Loire

Bike
39km

Discover the beautiful city of Angers, its castle and its busy streets. You'll leave the city riding along the Maine river, along the lake and across the woods until the confluence with the Loire river. Then, the itinerary leaves the river taking you to the hillside of the prestigious vineyards of Savennières.

You reach the southside of the river crossing the Chalonnes' island, one of the largest in the Loire river. Your daytrip ends in the lovely village of Montjean-sur-Loire. Just before the village, you ride by the large headframe of an old coal mine and the limekilns, witnesses of the mining history.

Day 2

Montjean-sur-Loire - Ancenis

Bike
29km

You leave Montjean-sur-Loire riding on the elevation along the Loire river. Discover the charming village of Saint-Florent-le-Vieil, birthplace of the writer Julien Gracq. The town with its magnificent XVIIth century abbey atop the Mont Glone is classified « Petite Cité de Caractère ». From the abbey, you'll embrace a spectacular panorama over the Loire valley.

Then, you keep on riding on small country roads. Crossing again the Loire river you enter Ancenis, former Bretagne harbour admiring the medieval castle and its moats.

Day 3

Ancenis - Nantes

Bike
39km

Start the day reaching the lovely town of Oudon and its impressive dungeon guarding the city. You get to the left bank of the river to Champtoceaux, old medieval fortress. Riding along the river and its islands, you'll cross the first lamb's lettuce fields near Nantes.

Eventually, a nice shady cycle path will take you to the Dukes' city. Pass by the former LU biscuit factory, nowadays cultural and artistic center. Your itinerary ends in front of the beautiful Ducs de Bretagne castle, in the historical center of Nantes.

Day 4

Suggested day trip : along the Erdre

Bike
41km

Not possible with trailer bike or bike trailer

You leave the vibrant city to found the quietness of the riverbank. The Erdre was named by the king François Ier "the most beautiful river in France". When riding, through woods and marsh, appreciate the diversity of wildlife and flora. Along your tour, you'll catch sight of beautiful mansions and small castles which have been built along the river by rich shipowners during the XIXth century. The lovely town of Suce-sur-Erdre will be the ideal place for a stop in its harbour.

Suggested day trip : Along the Sevre nantaise

Bike
46km

You start the day discovery the last large tributary of the Loire river, the Sevre nantaise. Ride along the cycle path up to Vertou and its lock. Leave the banks of the river and reach the hillsides of the Nantes vineyards, the muscadet area! Ride up to the elegant castle of Goulaine, nowadays official museum of the famous biscuit factory LU, then through the Goulaine marsh. Between romantic Sèvre, vineyards, marsh and riverbanks, this trip offers you a concentrate of the local treasury.

Not possible with trailer bike or bike trailer
