Itinerary

© Le Vélo Voyageur

This 4-day biking trip around Orange in the heart of the Provence lets you first discover the old town of Orange with its ancient theater before taking you through lavender fields and olive trees in the idyllic Provencal countryside. It's a slower pace of life here in Southern France. You will visit leisurely the Roman ruins of Vaison-la-Romaine, the small town of Nyons and all the charming villages along your way. You will also cross many wineries and sunny villages where you are tempt to linger, relax over a local rosé wine, fresh goat cheese, honey, olives, tapenade and sun-dried tomatoes.

Day 1

Orange

Enjoy Orange and its charming lively streets. The ocher hues of the city will immerse you immediately into the Provence atmosphere. Do not miss a visit to the very well preserved antique theater.

Day 2

Orange - Suze-la-Rousse

Bike
25km

As soon as you leave Orange, you ride on a plain lined with vineyards with the Mont Ventoux in the background. From village to village, you cross the garigue before reaching the University of Wine located in the castle of Suze-la-Rousse.

Day 3

Suze-la-Rousse - Nyons

Bike
40km

You leave Suze-la-Rousse and ride through the vineyards until reaching Venterol, a beautiful village overlooking the valley of the Eygues. Then, you ride gently down through the olive trees to Nyons, famous for its Provencal know-how (olive oil, lavender, soaps, scourtins, etc.).

Day 4

Nyons - Séguret

Bike
33km

Shortly after leaving Nyons, when passing over the river Eygues, enjoy the beautiful view of the old town. You will then ride up the olive groves and admire the magnificent panorama over the valley. After the village of Mirabel aux Baronnie, the circuit winds through vineyards surrounded by mountains up to Vaison la Romaine. After visiting the Roman ruins, continue to the village of Séguret, ranked "most beautiful villages in France".

Day 5

Séguret - Orange

Bike
25/48km

You ride along the very intriguing rock formation called "Laces of Montmirail" and enjoy the traditional knowledge of winemakers who work on the worldwide known Sablet or Gigondas land. You cross again the plain of Orange before reaching the historic city center.

The long option leads you to the salted pond of Courthézon. A bit further, Chateauneuf-du-Pape welcomes you! Do not miss the visit of the ruins and the paved streets of the village. Then, you reach back Orange and its famous arenas.
