Itinerary

The ViaRhôna is a 815 km long cycling path connecting Geneva Lake, from the North, to the Mediterranean Sea, to the South. In between, you will cycle alongside the Rhône River from the amazing Alpine mountains to the marvelous Mediterranean Sea beaches. A dream for everyone! From Vienne, the old roman capital, this trip offers a great variety of landscapes. You will cross a lot of typical French villages and have a magnificent view of the steeply terraced vineyards, the first major orchards along the Rhône Valley. You will follow the greenways for most of the path, riding your bike at an ideal speed, which will give you a chance to enjoy history, nature and gastronomy all at the same time!

Arrival in Vienne

Vienne boasts many Gallo-Roman vestiges. The best way to visit it is to walk from one site to the other, as the majority of the built heritage is located in the town center. Among them, the most famous are the antique theater, remarkable for its size, and the temple d'Auguste et de Livie, which nicely stands out in the middle of a town square.

Day 2

Vienne - Serrières

Bike
34km

You cycle quietly along the Rhône River on the bike path before crossing the river to get to the "Ile au Beurre". Have a break on this peaceful island known for the diversity of its fauna! Take the time to have a look around since you are in the heart of the major vineyards of the Rhône Valley including the famous Condrieu, Saint-Joseph, Côte-Rôtie. From this point on, you will get your first glimpse of the typical Provence villages and houses.

Day 3

Serrières - Tain l'Hermitage

Bike
37km

Just before crossing the river once again, have a break in the Village of Saint-Vallier. As strange as it may seem, the railway connecting Paris to Marseille split the Saint-Vallier historical center in two. Enter the Saint-Vallery Church, and the Poitiers family's burial chapel (parents of Diane de Poitiers). As you arrive in Tournon-sur-Rhône you cross the Rhône River on the oldest French hanging bridge that is still in use today. This "Passerelle Seguin" bridge allows you to reach the village of Tain-l'Hermitage, home of the famous wine and ValRhôna chocolate. Be sure to taste both of these delicious regional specialties.

Day 4

Tain l'Hermitage - Valence

Bike
22km

The cycle path now offers a gentle introduction to the South of France, with its pretty villages in typical southern style. Vineyards and fruits orchards are now the main part of the landscape. Discover the surprising blind channel around "La-Roche-de-Glun" village. Make sure you have a close look at the Diane de Poitiers Tower. Your trip ends in Valence, a classified Town of Art and History. With its colorful markets, shaded gardens and historic quarters, this living city makes you feel like being in Provence already.
