Itinerary

Take the chance of a short 3-day biking trip to discover the ViaRhôna from Montélimar, city of the famous "nougats" to Avignon and its "Palais des Papes". This colorful part of the itinerary gently takes you to the heart of Provence. You follow the bike path along the ViaRhôna to Pont-Saint-Espirit, then keep on biking on small typical roads of Provence. Discover a wild Rhône river snaking through orchards and vineyards. Your trip ends in the gorgeous historical cities of Orange and Avignon, witnesses of a prestigious past.

Day 1

Arrival in Montélimar

Wellknown stop on the road to the South, Montélimar has a flair of Provence! Walk the pedestrian streets in the old district, admire the colorful houses and enjoy a drink sitting in sidewalk cafes in the cool shade of trees. You can't miss tasting the famous nougats which will rejoice kids and parents.

Day 2

Montélimar - Pont-Saint-Espirit

Bike
49km

Leave Montélimar and ride through the medieval cities of Viviers and Donzère, witnesses of the flourishing past in the area. Your next stop will be Bourg-Saint-Andéol with its numerous historical buildings. There, you'll see the most important bas relief in antique Gaule. Then, you will reach Pont-Saint-Espirit, crossroad of 3 departements : Vaucluse, Ardèche and Gard. Cross its 700 years old stone bridge and enjoy the beautiful view over the medieval city and its cathedral. It is a jump in History!

Day 3

Pont-Saint-Espirit - Orange

Bike
36km

You keep on following the Rhône river to reach Caderousse. This Provence village is a beauty with its stone dam protecting the town since the 19th century against the regular floodings.

You leave the Rhône river to cross the plains and discover the roman city of Orange. The typical ochre colors of the city will tell you you are in Provence. With an exceptional historical heritage, Orange will take you back to the heart of the Roman civilisation. Of course, you will visit the Antique Theatre, very well preserved and still used today during the summer festival and admire the impressive Triumph Arch.

Day 4

Orange - Avignon

Bike
42km

You leave Orange to reach Châteauneuf-du-Pape and its 3000 hectares of vineyards. Of course, tasting its Grands Crus is a must! Take a stroll in the small streets of the village up to the ancient Chateau des Papes, resort place for the Popes from Avignon.

Then your path takes you through the beautiful vineyards back to the Rhône banks. Following the river, you'll get slowly to the impressive Cité des Papes. Admire the gorgeous treasure of Avignon : the Palais des Papes, the bridge Saint Bénézet named « Avignon's bridge », the city walls, the numerous churches and chapels...
